CEO of Atrium Staffing Named E&Y Entrepreneur Finalist

NEW YORK, New York - Ernst & Young LLP announced today that Rebecca Cenni, Founder & CEO of Atrium Staffing, is a finalist for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year 2006 award for the New York Metropolitan area. Cenni is among 29 finalists from 26 companies that were selected by a panel of independent judges composed of business, civic, and academic leaders. The awards ceremony will take place at an event hosted on Wednesday, June 28th at The New York Marriot Marquis in Times Square. The award winners from this event will be eligible for consideration for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year 2006 national program held in Palm Springs, CA on November 18, 2006.

"This year's finalists are true visionaries who have contributed to economic growth, innovation, and cutting-edge products and services," said Joseph Capparelli, Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year program director for the Metropolitan New York Area. "We proudly celebrate their achievements as we mark the 20th anniversary of this prestigious awards program."

"I am honored to be among this group of innovative and savvy entrepreneurs recognized within our community" says Rebecca Cenni. "This group of nominees is truly creating and building businesses impacting our local and global economy."
